

Children's Mental Health Voice of Florida

Invites you to attend Florida's first Statewide Summit

January 10-11, 2006

The Florida Mall Hotel
1500 Sand Lake Road ❖ Orlando

The goal of the summit is to transform Florida's Child & Adolescent Mental Health Care System

Key areas of focus will be:

*Prevention
Early Intervention
Early Identification*

What is the Children's Mental Health Voice (CMHV)?

The CMHV is a coalition formed to advocate and educate with a collective voice for the transformation of the Child & Adolescent Mental Health Care System in Florida.

CMHV's* Goal:

To ensure that no child shall have a preventable mental illness, and that every child who develops a mental illness shall have access to state of the art and culturally competent treatment.

What will attendees do at CMHV Statewide Summit?

Attendees will divide into work groups and work together to create a unified plan for improving the Children's Mental Health Care System in Florida and will then reconvene to discuss their ideas and results with everyone at the end of each day. There will also be keynote presentations by Michael Hogan, PhD, Chairman, President's New Freedom Commission on Mental Illness and Larke Nahme Huang, PhD, Commissioner, President's New Freedom Commission on Mental Illness.

The summit will be held at The Florida Mall Hotel. A block of rooms have been reserved at a rate of $99.00 per night.

Reservations should be made no later than December 19, 2005. Inform the hotel that you are attending the Children's Mental Health Voice summit to receive our room rate.
